- A. Compensation of Executive Officers. The Committee is responsible for determining the compensation of the Company's CEO and the other executive officers of the Company. This responsibility includes:
- (1) Establishing performance goals and objectives on an annual basis for the CEO and other executive officers and evaluating the performance of such persons in light of the approved goals and objectives.
  - (2) Setting compensation levels, including salary and bonus potential, for the CEO and other executive officers, in the case of the CEO, presenting such determinations to the Board for its ratification, and approving bonus awards, stock options and other equity grants for the CEO and other executive officers. Neither the CEO nor any other executive officer may be present during the deliberations or voting on such person's own compensation.
  - (3) Reviewing the results of shareholder advisory votes regarding executive compensation.
- B. Compensation and Benefits Policies, Plans and Programs: The Committee shall lead in developing and administering compensation and benefits policies, plans and programs for executive officers, subject to the following guidelines:

  - (2) The Committee may develop and adopt new executive compensation and benefits policies, plans or programs or amend existing executive compensation and benefits policies, plans or programs, in each case including equity incentive plans and programs, and shall present material policies, plans and programs or amendments thereto to the Board for its review and approval.

- C. Executive Compensation Disclosure and Annual Reporting: To the extent applicable, the Committee shall review and discuss with management the Company's Compensation Discussion and Analysis ("CD&A") disclosure for the Company's annual proxy statement and, based on its review and discussions, may recommend to the Board that the CD&A be included in the Company's annual proxy statement. To the extent applicable, the Committee shall also produce annually a report on executive compensation to be included in the Company's proxy statement in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
- D. Other Committee Authority. The Committee shall also have the following other duties:

- (1) The Committee shall administer the Company's equity incentive plans and programs and approve awards thereunder.
- (2) The Committee shall review and recommend to the Board compensation arrangements for non-employee members of the Board, and shall approve annual compensation in accordance with the arrangements approved by the Board. No member of the Committee shall act to fix his or her own compensation except for uniform compensation to directors for their services as directors.
- (3) The Committee shall review and approve the setting of compensation levels for senior employees whose compensation is not otherwise determined by the Committee to the extent the Committee deems such review and approval to be necessary or appropriate.
- (4) The Committee shall make recommendations to the Board with respect to the adoption of new employee benefit plans and new equity incentive plans and programs when Board approval of such plans or programs is required or desirable.
- (5) The Committee shall discharge the responsibilities of the Committee under applicable rules and regulations.

- (10) The Committee shall perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, and the Company's Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation, as the Committee may deem necessary or appropriate for the fulfillment of its responsibilities under this Charter or as required by any applicable requirements of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq"), the Securities and Exchange Commission and any other legal or regulatory requirements, or as may be determined by the Board.
- (11) The Committee shall do every other act incidental to, arising out of or in connection with, or otherwise related to, the authority granted to the Committee hereby or the carrying out of the Committee's duties and responsibilities hereunder.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the legal liability of any of the Committee members shall be no greater than that of other members of the Board. The Committee may delegate authority granted hereunder, to the extent permitted under applicable law and any applicable requirements of Nasdaq, to a subcommittee of the Committee, management or any executive officer in order to ensure compliance with legal and regulatory obligations, to ensure timely decision-making or for other purposes. Delegation to executive officers or management may only occur with respect to matters affecting employees other than the person to whom authority is delegated and other than the CEO.

V. Committee Resources and Advisors

The Committee shall have the authority, at the expense of the Company, to retain and determine the compensation for, such compensation consultants, independent legal counsel or other advisers (each, a “compensation adviser”) as it shall deem necessary or appropriate in its sole discretion in the performance of its duties, without Board or management approval. Prior to selecting any compensation adviser, the Committee shall take into consideration the following factors:

- (1) The provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the compensation adviser;
- (2) The amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the compensation adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation adviser;
